

Inspiring Community Engagement

The LGMC Alumni Association Presents:

Why Do Smart People Do Dumb Things?

An Introduction to Emotional Intelligence

Thursday, September 29, 2011

7:30 AM – 9:30 AM

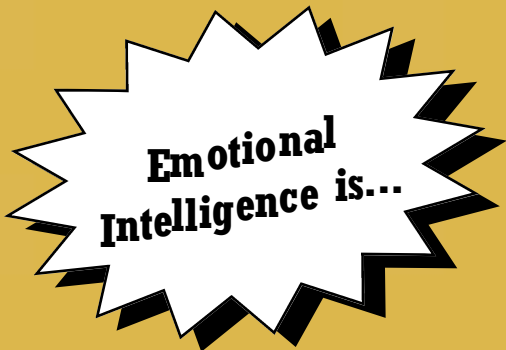

Continental Breakfast & Connecting 7:30-8:00 am

Sage Products, 3909 Three Oaks Road, Cary

What's the number one reason people fail in their work and personal life?

Lack of intelligence or technical expertise? No. It's due to a lack of Emotional Intelligence.

Emotions have the potential to derail our most important business and personal relationships.

- The ability to manage your behaviors
- Being at your personal best during difficult and stressful moments.
- Identified as the single greatest contributor to personal excellence and leadership.

Join professional Leadership Development Coach, Lynn Mitchell, Class of 2011, as she offers an engaging overview of Emotional Intelligence.

Clear up the confusion of “Why Smart People Do Dumb Things!”

Seating is limited!

Contact Toni Seagren by September 22.

815-337-8751 or tseagren@leadershipgmc.org

LGMC Mission

To educate and inspire professionals to engage in community leadership
www.leadershipgmc.org